

The background is a dark blue field filled with various microscopic organisms. In the top left, there's a small red sphere with a lightning bolt. Next to it is a blue, oval-shaped organism. To the right, there are several yellow, multi-lobed structures. Further right is a red sphere with horizontal lines, and a small blue sphere with two white dots. In the middle left, a large green sphere contains several smaller, detailed organisms. Below it is a red sphere with white, irregular shapes. In the bottom left, there's a light blue sphere with two small blue spheres inside. Next to it is a red sphere with two white spheres. On the bottom right, a large, glowing orange and red sphere with a bright white light source on its surface is visible.
